EVERYTHING TO LOVE ABOUT THE OUTDOORS

The undisputed star of the show on The Central Coastal Drive is the scenery. Around every bend you'll see blue waters, green fields and red roads that will live in your memory for a lifetime. The only question is, how will you explore: on the water, on the road, on a daytrip or on an overnight camping stay?

INDIGENOUS CULTURE AND EXPERIENCES ON PEI

Prince Edward Island is a land rich in Indigenous history and culture. Visitors to the Island can explore Mi'kmaq First Nation traditions and way of life through a variety of experiences. The Prince Edward Island National Park and the Skmaqn—Port-la-Joye—Fort Amherst National Historic Site are two locations where visitors can learn about the history and traditions of the Indigenous people in the summer months.

Additionally, the island is home to many Indigenous artisans and artists who showcase their work in galleries and markets, such as the Charlottetown Farmers' Market. The best resource to get up to date information is the Indigenous Tourism Association of PEI. www.indigenouspei.ca parks.canada.ca/skmaqn

WONDERFUL PLACES TO WANDER

Victoria-By-the-Sea
 The picture-perfect Village of Victoria has been welcoming visitors to our Red Sands Shore since the Harland Ferry docked there in the 1900s. Today it continues to thrive as a community filled with art, antiques, theatre, fresh local food, shops, and lovely architecture.

New Glasgow
 The village sits nestled beside the River Clyde and is home to PEI's famous lobster supper traditions, the PEI Preserve Company, the Gardens of Hope and a beautiful restaurant in the historic Glasgow Mill. All surrounded by views that many say appear too beautiful to be real.

Rustico
 Rustico is one of Prince Edward Island's most historically and architecturally rich communities as the oldest Acadian settlement in PEI. Visitors will see numerous landmarks which serve as a legacy of the past and commemorate the determination and ingenuity of the Acadians: The Farmers' Bank, The Doucet House, St. Augustine's Church, The Pioneer Cemetery, Barachois Inn.

New London
 Best known as the place where famous Island author L.M. Montgomery was born. This tiny community is rich in culture, heritage, and culinary like The Table. Nearby tea rooms, restaurants, and fields of wildflowers complete this idyllic picture.

Bonshaw
 Home to two of our beautiful provincial parks and some of the best beginner hiking trails on the Island. Bonshaw's rolling hills and pastures are the perfect destination to base your stay while exploring the rest of the Central Coastal Drive.

North Rustico
 With its lovely boardwalk and lively wharves, there is much to see and do in this vibrant, colourful place. Choose from a wide variety of dining options which feature incredible fresh seafood but also cater to all kinds of other palates. July 1st, Canada Day is really something special here, and if you're visiting close to Christmas, the light show in this community is pure magic.

Kensington
 The town of Kensington sits at a crossroad in the heart of PEI where you'll find the beautiful stone "Boulder" railway station which is now a National Historic Site. Kensington is an important hub for those in surrounding communities and offers all the basic services of a small bustling town.

Cornwall
 Cornwall is a hub of activity and the perfect place for visitors to stock up on all the necessities. There are many places to stay and eat in the area, ideal for their central locations and convenience. If in need of a treat, head over to the COWS Creamery and Anne of Green Gables Chocolates, or grab a pint at Lone Oak Brew Pub.

The Cavendish Coast
 In the very heart of Prince Edward Island's Green Gables Shore resort region lies much of the spectacular PEI National Park and our Island's most famous beaches. Cavendish is the undisputed capital of family fun and the story-book home of Anne of Green Gables - history meets natural beauty meets fun and adventure.

Borden-Carleton
 The link to New Brunswick. Borden-Carleton is home to Gateway Village, a strip of retail and restaurants to make the beginning or end of your PEI visit memorable. Also, Borden-Carleton has an amazing park, The Marine Rail Park, at the foot of the Confederation Bridge where you can get that perfect photo-op.

EVERYTHING TO LOVE ABOUT PLACES TO STAY

Your home away from home awaits! Our region's cottages, B&Bs and hotels are where you can relax and recharge after days full of fun and adventure. If you're looking for a heritage home rich in history, a family-oriented property with lots of space to roam around, or a more traditional hotel option with modern amenities, you'll be able to find an accommodation that is perfect for you.

EVERYTHING TO LOVE ABOUT ANNE

For lovers of all things Anne Shirley, Central Coastal Drive is as close to the centre of the universe as you can get. Here you'll find the source of inspiration for her Island creator, Lucy Maud Montgomery. In the very setting she painted with words, you can discover family fun, amazing artifacts, world-class theatre, and breath-taking landscapes that celebrate the spirit of our beloved Anne and her world-renowned author.
